PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT

New Delhi, the 30th September, 1961

No. 45-Pres./61.—The President is pleased to approve of the institution of an award to be designated the "JEEVAN RAKSHA PADAK" in three grades, namely, Class One, Class Two and Class Three and to make the following regulations:—

Firstly.—The decoration shall be in the form of a medal, and styled and designated the "JEEVAN RAKSHA PADAK" (hereinafter referred to as the medal).

Secondly.—The medal shall be circular in shape and of a thickness of 3 mm. The geometrical pattern shall consist of two raised circles, inner and outer, as in the representative drawing in the annexure. The diameter of the outer circle shall be 58 mm. and of the inner circle 50 mm. At the top there shall be a rectangular projection 22.5 mm. in length and 12.5 mm. in width. At the bottom there shall be another projection 42.5 mm. in length and 10 mm. in width. The edges of these projections also will be raised. On the obverse of the medal shall be embossed in the centre a hand in the "Abhaya Mudra". In the upper projection there shall be embossed the Sanskrit letters "समैः" and in the lower projection the name of the medal "JEEVAN RAKSHA" in Hindi. The hand, the Sanskrit letters and the name of the medal shall be burnished. The remaining surface of the medal shall be toned to constitute a plain background. On the reverse shall be embossed the State Emblem with the motto "सत्यमेव जयते". A sealed pattern of the decoration shall be deposited and kept.

Class One of the Medal shall be made of gold, Class Two of silver and Class Three of bronze.

Thirdly.—The medal shall be suspended from the left breast by a red coloured silk riband 32 mm. in width, edged with light blue stripes each 4 mm. wide, and shall in the case of—

Class One—have one green verticle stripe 1 mm. wide down the centre;

Class Two—two green verticle stripes, each 1 mm. wide and 4 mm. apart, in the centre; and Class Three—three green verticle stripes, each 1 mm. wide and 3½ mm. apart, in the centre.

The colours red, light blue and green denote fire, water and life respectively.

Fourthly.—The medal shall be awarded for meritorious acts or a series of acts of a humane nature displayed in saving life from drowning, fire and rescue operations in mines etc. The extent of the meritorious acts of a humane nature to determine the class of the award shall be as follows:—

Class I of the medal shall be awarded for conspicuous courage under circumstances of very great danger to the life of the rescuer.

Class II of the medal shall be awarded for courage and promptitude under circumstances of great danger to the life of the rescuer.

Class III of the medal shall be awarded for courage and promptitude in saving life under circumstances of grave bodily injury to the rescuer.

Fifthly.—The medal may be awarded posthumously.

Sixthly.—The decoration shall be conferred by the President.

Fifthly.—The medal may be awarded posthumously.

Sixthly.—The decoration shall be conferred by the President.

Seventhly.—The names of those persons, upon or on account of whom the decoration may be conferred, shall be published in the Gazette of India, and a Register thereof maintained under the direction of the President.

Eighthly.—Persons of either sex in all walks of life, other than the members of the Fighting Services, Police Forces and Fire Brigades if the act is performed by them in the course of duty, shall be eligible for the award.

Ninthly.—If a recipient of the medal of any of the three classes shall again perform such an act of humane service as would have made him or her eligible to receive the medal of the same class, such further act of humane service shall be recognised by a Bar to be attached to the riband by which the medal is suspended and, for every subsequent act of humane service, an additional Bar shall be added and such Bar or Bars may also be awarded posthumously. For every such Bar, a replica of the medal in miniature shall be added to the riband when worn alone.

Tenthly.—If a recipient of the medal of any of the three classes shall again perform such an act of humane service as would have made him or her eligible for the award of a medal of a class different from the one already received, such further act of humane service shall be recognised by the award of another medal of the appropriate class. On those occasions, when only the riband is worn, an additional riband pertaining to the appropriate class shall also be worn.

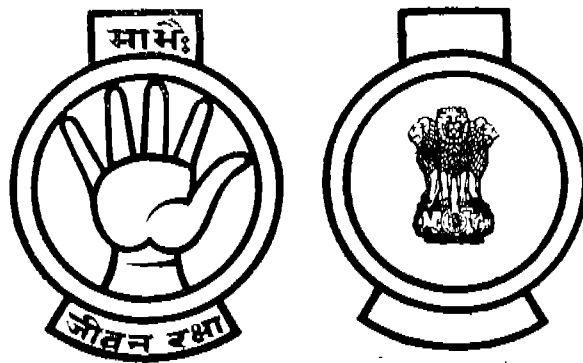

Eleventhly.—The miniature medal which may be worn on certain occasions by recipients shall be half the size of the medal, and a sealed pattern of the said miniature medal shall be deposited and kept.

Twelfthly.—The President may cancel and annul the award of the medal to any person and thereupon the name of such recipient in the Register shall be erased and the recipient shall be required to surrender the insignia; but it shall be competent for the President to restore the decoration when such cancellation and annulment has been withdrawn.

Lastly.—The notice of cancellation or restoration in every case shall be published in the Gazette of India.

ANNEXURE.

JEEVAN RAKSHA PADAK

New Delhi, the 5th October 1961

No. 46-Pres./61.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.

Shri Anand Prakash Garg, Sub-Inspector of Police, Mainpuri District, Uttar Pradesh.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

On the 8th January, 1959, at about 10 P.M. Shri Anand Prakash Garg, Sub-Inspector of Police, Bawar, received information that an absconder Lalman alias Lala who had been convicted on a charge of dacoity on two previous occasions was in his village Karwamai Nagaria along with his fully armed gang and that they were preparing to commit dacoity in village Nangla Penth. Sub-Inspector Garg left for the village along with a police party and some members of the public. At about midnight the Police party surrounded the house of Lalman. Shri Garg along with some policemen approached the main door of the house and challenged the dacoits whereupon Lalman fired at the Sub-Inspector. The Police party took cover and the dacoits tried to escape from the back of the house, where another Police party had been posted. Two of the dacoits were arrested. The other dacoits then tried to make off under cover of fire but Shri Garg returned the fire and prevented them from escaping. Lalman then bolted himself in a room and started firing at the police party through an opening. The firing continued till 7.00 a.m. next morning when Lalman shouted to Sub-Inspector Garg that he was prepared to surrender. Lalman then came out of the room and tried to shoot Sub-Inspector Garg but fortunately the cartridge misfired. As Lalman tried to reload his gun Sub-Inspector Garg, in total disregard of his personal safety, pounced upon him and grappled with him. Ultimately Sub-Inspector Garg disarmed Lalman and recovered a gun and cartridges from him. A country-made pistol and a lathi were also recovered from the other dacoits who were arrested.

In this gallant and successful encounter Shri Anand Prakash Garg showed undaunted courage and a high sense of devotion to duty at great personal risk.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4 (1) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in Rule 5.
